Welcome to 2026... our 25th Anniversary!

We are planning an exciting year ahead with expanded activities and special events to mark this significant milestone.

We hope you'll be part of the celebration by renewing your membership — or joining us for the first time.

Thank you for helping us protect and celebrate the Tay Watershed... we truly appreciate your continued support.

Special Thanks to Our Sustaining Members

Maximilian Restaurant, Rideau Valley Conservation Authority, McNamee Storage, Prodec, Hourglass Café and Foodsmiths.

Your membership helps support watershed protection activities, environmental education and outreach at Watershed Discovery Day and Stewart Park Festival, student research assistance, Water Guardian Bursary, Environmental awards, and community environmental policy submissions.

Well-known veterinarian, Steve Scott of Tay Valley Township, is presented with a $50 membership draw gift certificate in 2025 by Maximilian Restaurant co-owner Kevin Van Dusen (right), assisted by Taro Alps, Membership Chair (left).
