

BIRD SIGHTINGS ON THE TAY CANAL

This provides a list of the birds that have been seen along the Tay Canal, between Last Duel Dock Park in Perth and Upper Beveridge Locks, on Lower Rideau Lake.

We would welcome hearing from you with new sightings not already listed here - by e-mail at:

friends@taywatershed.ca

Latest update: August 12, 2017

American Bittern
American Crow
American Robin

Baltimore Oriole
Belted Kingfisher
Black Tern (species/special concern)
Blue Jay
Canada Goose
Canvasback Duck (not confirmed)
Catbird
Cedar Waxwing
Common Loon
Common Moorhen
Common Tern
Common Yellow Throat

Eastern Kingbird
Golden Eagle
Grackle

Gray Catbird
Goldfinch
Great Blue Heron
Green Heron

House Wren

Mallard
Marsh Wren
Mourning Dove
Northern Harrier
Northern Waterthrush
Osprey
Pied-billed Grebe
Red-eyed Vireo
Red-winged Blackbird
Ring-billed Gull
Rose-breasted Grosbeak (Heard)

Song Sparrow
Spotted Sandpiper
Swamp Sparrow

Tree Swallow
Turkey Vulture

Veery
Warbling Vireo
Wood Duck
Yellow Warbler

Other Animals:

Beaver
Deer
Mink
Muskrat
Painted Turtle
Black Rat Snake

Thanks to the many bird watchers who have provided this list of sightings, including the Mississippi Valley Field Naturalists.